BEACH AND WIFE ARRIVE IN LONDON

Millionaire, Accused of Assault and Battery, Declines to Talk.

EMBASSY HEARS NOTHING

Authoritative Statement That He
Will Return in Time to Meet Charges.

London, April 9.—Frederick O. Beach, the Wall Street broker, against whom is now in London, will return to this country to meet the charges against him, according to a statement made to-night by the law firm of Nichol, Anable, return about the first of June. The statement follows:

"Mr. Beach, accompanied by his wife, went abroad on April 3, intending to return about the first of June. The trip was made for his wife's health. They intend to make a short stay in London and then join friends on the Continent. We are authorized to say that Mr. Beach will return in ample time to meet the preposterous charges against him. In the meantime the public may be trusted to see the great absurdity of the whole proceeding."

Nothing regarding the charge against Mr. Beach has so far been received at the American embassy in London.

Will Return to Face Charges.

New York, April 9.—Frederick O. Beach, the broker and society man, who is charged with attempting to kill his wife, and who, with Mrs. Beach, left for London, will return to this country to meet the charges against him, according to a statement made to-night by the law firm of Nichol, Anable, return about the first of June. The statement follows:

NEW YORKER HELD ON LIBEL CHARGE

Henry W. A. Page Circulates
Pamphlet in Which He Says
All Congressmen Are Crooks.

New York, April 9.—Henry W. A. Page, a well-to-do commission merchant and importer of linens and cottons, was arrested here to-day on a Federal warrant from the District of Columbia, charging him with libeling Representative Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, chairman of the House Committee on Judiciary, and other members of Congress. Page took his arrest coolly, in fact, he requested that the Federal officers be notified that he was waiting for the arrival of officers. In the indictment, which contains three counts, Page is charged with having circulated alleged libelous matter in a pamphlet bearing a title page as follows:

"The crime of the Hon. Henry D. Clayton. Congressmen commit perjury."

On the title page these captions were followed by these questions:

"Q. Do Congressmen take a solemn oath to defend the Constitution against all its enemies?"

"A. Yes."

"Q. Do Congressmen keep this oath?"

"A. No."

"Q. Why do not Congressmen keep this solemn oath?"

"A. Because all Congressmen are crooks."

This pamphlet, addressed to all the members of the House Committee on Judiciary, was circulated among all the members of the sixty-second Congress.

Should Take No Notice.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—Democratic Leader Underwood declared that personally he thought the House should not take notice of the attack of H. W. A. Page, of New York, on Representative Clayton, of Alabama. Mr. Underwood declared that Mr. Clayton's standing among his colleagues was such that "no attack from any source could do him injury."

DEATH SENTENCE FOR NEGRO WOMAN

Negress Found Guilty of Brutal
Murder of Miss Ida
Belote.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Hampton, Va., April 9.—Virginia Christian, a young colored woman, was found guilty of the brutal murder of Mrs. Ida Virginia Belote and sentenced to death in the electric chair by a jury in the Circuit Court of Elizabeth City county to-night. Judge Clarence W. Robinson sentenced the woman to be electrocuted between sunrise and sunset on Friday, June 21.

The attorneys for the convicted negress announced that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court. The trial started yesterday morning and ended to-night at 6 o'clock. Virginia Christian is the first woman to receive the death sentence in Virginia since the State installed the electric chair in the Virginia Penitentiary.

Mrs. Belote was murdered most brutally in her home in Washington Street on the afternoon of March 18. She was beaten, choked, and finally a towel was rammed down her throat. It was shown that she had had trouble with the Christian woman. The evidence against the negress, while circumstantial, was convincing, and the jury took a little less than an hour to find the death sentence verdict.

The murdered woman was a member of a most prominent and widely known family here.

Will Ask Levy for Pensions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., April 9.—S. B. Gibbons Camp of Confederate Veterans will ask the county supervisors to make a levy of 5 per cent. to add to the pensions now received by the 222 pensioners of Rockingham. If the request is granted the pension total will be raised from $10,000 to $15,512.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Gives quick relief from pain. It's an excellent remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago and sprains.

Relieved Severe Pain in Shoulders
Mr. J. UNDERWOOD, of 2000 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I am a piano polisher by occupation, and since last Sept. have suffered with severe pain in both shoulders. I could not rest night or day. One of my friends told me about your liniment. Three applications completely cured me, and I will never be without it."

Cured Sciatic Rheumatism
Mr. A. J. NANCE, of Oak Hill, O., writes: "I have used your liniment for sciatic rheumatism. I was so I could not walk for a long time. Even ate my meals on the floor, but your liniment cured me. I keep it in the house all the time and have let others use it and it cured them. I sent to Fronton, O., the other day and got two 50c. bottles for other people."

Another Candidate for Mayor.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., April 9.—John H. Downing, a young attorney of Harrisonburg, announces his candidacy for Mayor of this morning. Mr. Downing is a son of H. H. Downing of Front Royal.

John P. Burke, the present Mayor, was elected by the Town Council last November to take the place of Colonel O. M. Rolley, who resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Burke was the first to announce his candidacy for re-election.

Historic House Is Burned.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., April 9.—Fire completely destroyed the old Miller homestead near Koppelstown yesterday morning. The house was built in 1791 and was owned by Peter Miller by King George III. The house was constructed shortly afterwards. During the late war the old house welcomed refugees.

The house was occupied by Jesse Hentz and family, who lost all their furniture and provisions. His father, C. A. Henton, owned the property.

Graves—Clark.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Weldon, N. C., April 9.—Miss Mary Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Clark, was married Monday night at Grace Church to Felix Graves, of South Carolina. Rev. Mr. Albert, new rector of the church, performing the ceremony. Miss Annie Musgrave played the wedding march. Miss Clark is a niece of Chief Justice Walter Clark of the North Carolina Supreme Court.
